Mrs. Amanda Robertson and daughter, Miss Edna Roberts, of Homer, Ind., who have been with M. M. Cassidy and family for three weeks went to Winchester on Friday. They left for Fleming county on Tuesday.

May be a Candidate.

Miss Mary Anderson, the present incumbent in the office of Superintendent of schools, is undecided in regard to being a candidate for reelection. Many friends who appreciate her faithful services are urging her to ask the people's endorsement of her course, but aware that conscientious laborers make some enemies and cool the ardor of others, she is in the hands of the people and her decision will to a large measure depend on their action.

For Constipation.

Take Laxative Syrup: If you don't like Laxative Syrup, you have ever used, your doctor will refund the money. Price 50c.

Mrs. J. F. Clark has opened a restaurant in one of the large business rooms under the Grand Opera House and expects to conduct a first-class house, giving the people the very best meals for the money. Meals will be served in Kentucky style. Alabama Dye is her cook.

HIGHLAND.—On Thanksgiving day J. T. Highland and wife went to spend the day at the home of her mother, Mrs. Amanda Clay. While there she became sick and was never able to return home, her condition being serious from the first. On Thursday morning, January 17, 1901, at 8 o'clock, the long struggle was over—a beautiful life was finished—the departed to be with Christ. Mary Eliza Clay, Highland was born March 16, 1832 in Madison county. Most of her life was spent in Bath county. At the age of seventeen she united with the Christian church at Sharpshurg under the preaching of James Hardin, Sr. She changed her membership to Somerset after her marriage. She was the wife of Mr. Highland. They were married on September 6, 1853. She was an excellent woman, hospitable, generous, social, cheerful, zealous in Christian work. To her family she was ever and always true. To her husband, she was as God created and commanded wife to be husband. To her husband's children she was all an own mother could possibly be. At all times and under all circumstances, devoted, thoughtful and unselfish. They loved her as mother. She loved them as "my children." Her life and character was an example for the living. She will be greatly missed in the home, neighborhood and church. She leaves a brother, Ed, and sisters Sallie, Maggie and Anna. The funeral service was conducted at the home of her mother Friday morning by Rev. H. D. Clark and the body was laid to rest in Macphail.

A Convention of Men.

The forthcoming Twentieth Annual State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of Kentucky, in Louisville, Feb. 21-24, has been appropriately designated as "A Convention of Men to Consider Problems in Men's Lives." A strong and attractive program has been arranged by the State Executive Committee. The varied departments of the Association's activity will be presented by competent leaders of state and national reputation. Among the speakers will be Messrs. John R. Mott, General Secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation, New York; Richard C. Morse and Fred B. Smith, Secretaries of the International Committee, S. D. Gordon, Cleveland, O., W. M. Wood, Chicago, Ill., Frank H. Burr, St. Louis, Mo., and Bishop C. B. Galloway, Jackson, Miss., besides many of the representative workers from the State.

Three important delegates from the city, railroad, student and county organizations are expected. There will also be a considerable delegation of young men and business men from several points in the State where Associations are not yet organized. The railroads will grant reduced rates, and the Louisville Association entertains all delegates. The Convention sessions will be held in the spacious Warren Memorial Presbyterian church. Full particulars, programs, credentials, etc., may be obtained from the nearest Association Secretary, or from Henry E. Rousegar, State Secretary, Fourth and Broadway, Louisville.

Woodford Stock Farm.

Catalogue of Bly saddle and harnesses to be sold at public sale at Mt. Sterling, Thursday, Feb. 7, 1901, has been issued and can be obtained by applying to John T. Woodford, Mt. Sterling, Ky. At this sale will be disposed of fifty choice horses, no nicks, but tops. It will be a rare opportunity for our horse people to get what they want without the expense of holding, feeding and waiting. Mr. Woodford stands in high rank with the best breeders, and an individual purchased from him carries with it both a pedigree and the breeder's reputation.

The Military Store of Kenny & Tipton has been closed on account of financial troubles.

January Court.

About 600 cattle on market, very few good ones in the offerings. Smaller run is better than usual, and there was a good demand for them. Prices were better than last court by 25 to 50c per hundred and trade had some life. The top price of the day was $4.70 for some extra fine 1100 lb. steers and they were No. 1. Sales of feeders were mostly at 4 to 4.35, yearlings at 4 to 4.4; heifers at 3 to 3.4; cows at 2 to 2.4; bulls at 3 to 3.4. A good crowd present from over the State and we had more buyers than could be supplied with the cattle they wanted. Most of the sales were made at so much per head as it was difficult to catch sales.

SALES.

Allen & Crouch sold 6 700-lb. steers to Dick Donaldson of Bath county at 4.35.

Jno. Ross sold some extra fine 1100 lb. steers to J. D. Reid at 4.70.

Henry Caywood, of Bourbon county, bought 7 800-lb. steers of Dan Murphy at 4 cts.

Allen & Crouch sold a lot of 800-lb. cows at 2.65 and some bulls at 3 cts to Boone Wade.

Sam Laythrum sold 16 855-lb. steers to Henry Caywood, of Bourbon county, at 4 cts.

H. P. Derickson, of Stanton, bought 11 about 500 lb. yearlings at 22.50.

R. P. Drake sold a bunch of 800-lb. steers to Joseph Croxton, of Clark county, at 3 1/2 cts.

Hiram Long sold some 500-lb. heifers to J. H. Wood, of Lawrenceburg at 3 1/2 cts.

Wm. Musie, of Boyd county, bought 15 560-lb. yearlings of Blankenship & Arnett at 22.50 per head.

Fannie Brock, of Ashland, Ky., bought 25 cow and steers at 24 to 4 cts.

A good many other sales made that we did not catch at about these figures.

HORSES AND MULES.

Mules were in good demand and sales fairly brisk. A good many 3 year olds sold in pairs to farmers at from $200 to $250 per pair; one pair of aged mules selling at $200 quite a number of small mules sold at from $50 to $75. A. D. Anderson sold a 2 year old mule at $75.

Horse trade a little dull. Sales of some fair horses at $50 to $75; some good horses sold at $100 to $125. No sales of the fine horses.

QUEEN VICTORIA DYING.

On Saturday evening Queen Victoria was paralyzed and is in a dying condition.

GRAHAM.—Rev. Robt. Graham, of Lexington, Ky., died on Sunday, January 20th, at Bellevue, Pa., where he had been visiting relatives. He was born at Liverpool, England in 1832. He entered Bethany College, Virginia, under Alexander Campbell in 1850 and became president of the college in 1859. In 1859 he took the chair of Belles Lettres and History in Kentucky University, then located at Harrodsburg, Ky. In 1860 he became president of the College of Arts of Kentucky University. He held this position until 1869, when he became President of Hocker Female College, in which position he remained until 1875. From that date until 1886 he served as President of the College of the Bible of the Kentucky University, resigning at that time to take a professorship in that department, which he held until 1896. The funeral services will be held at Broadway Christian church on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

DOCTORS USE PE-RU-NA.

DR. J. W. PENCE, NEWARK, OHIO.

S. B. Hartman, M. D., Columbus, O.

It is now seventeen years since I received the first edition of your book entitled "The Life of Life." I received it in the evening mail, and before I retired I read and pondered over every word in the book. I was greatly impressed with your candor and sincerity. The book left no doubt in my mind as to the remarkable virtues of your Peruna. It was because of this impression that I resolved I would test your assertions, and test them in a way that could leave no doubt.

I began prescribing Peruna, as recommended in your book, and prescribed it precisely as you directed. As you know, the prevailing diseases are inflammations or irritations of the internal organs of the body, either the head, the throat, the lungs, bowels, etc. I prescribed it hundreds of times for these diseases during all the following seventeen years, and I have never lost a single case during all this time, although I have often related this to my medical associates, who at first expressed their doubts, and sometimes very emphatically, but after I had treated a large number of cases that had been given up, and cured them, they began to believe what I said.

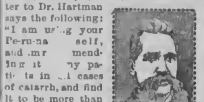

I rely so wholly upon Peruna in every disease that affects the mucous membranes lining the internal organs, that I never for a moment think of prescribing anything else. Since using Peruna, I have never had a patient die from inflammation of the lungs, bladder, bowels, stomach or kidneys. In every case recovered in a very short time. In other words, I prescribed Peruna for all cases of catarrhal diseases. I believe you are right in classing all irritations and inflammations of the internal organs as catarrh. Catarrh means irritation and inflammation, and is a name in common use for some mucous surface, and also that same irritation and inflammation are caused either by taking cold, or by some local cause.

I see that you generally use a portrait when you publish a certificate, and as I have just had some pictures taken, I enclose you one. You can use it and this letter, one, or both, just as you wish, if you think it will promote the use of Peruna. If you would like special cases that I have treated with Peruna, I can give you hundreds of them.

Very truly yours, Dr. J. W. Pence, A. W. Perrin, D. D. S., 360 Halsey street, Brooklyn, N. Y. In a recent letter to Dr. Hartman says the following: "I am using your Peruna self, and am mending my practice in all cases of catarrh, and find it to be more than you represent. Peruna can be had now of all druggists. A. W. Perrin, M. D. S. in this section at the time I began using it, it was unknown."

Send for winter catarrh book. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

A "WHOPPER" FISH STORY.

An Old Guide Tells of a Tussle with a Catfish.

I asked Capt. Hance, one of the guides of the Grand canyon of the Colorado, if there were any fish in the Colorado river, says W. F. Curtis, in the Chicago Record. He looked at me intently for a moment, and then, wriggling all over like an eel, he held up both hands and exclaimed:

"I should say there was. You just ought to see me the day I had a tussle with a catfish. They ain't much but catfish in the Colorado, and they're terrors, and some of 'em is as big as whales or what-do-you-call-'em. I was 'fishin' one day 'bout four summers ago, and got terribly sleepy. It did seem to me as if I couldn't hold my eyes open another minute, so I just naturally hitched my line to my booting and set to myself we'll have a snooze."

"How long I slept I don't know, but when I woke up I was sidin' long on the top of the Colorado river like a torpedo shot out of a gun, feet first. I must have went a mile or so before I realized what had happened, and then it came to me all to once that I was bein' towed somewhere with the gosh darned fish line tied to my boot leg. Then, all at once, that thunderin' fish concluded he'd go down to the bottom, and I expect he dove 500 feet, draggin' me with him, fur, of course, I couldn't do nothin' but go too. The line was tied to my leg and stretched so taut, and we goin' so fast, that by the time I could reach my hand over to get hold, the leg would be in the next county; but when that fish struck bottom he seemed to reckon he'd rest a spell, and there we laid quiet 500 or 600 feet below the top of the water. That gave me a chance to reach over and ketch hold of the line, which I did mighty careful, for fear of skerin' the fish."

"Iland over hand I gradually gathered in the line until I got close up to the beggar that had made all the trouble. He was a catfish as long as a telegraph pole, and he had a head bigger'n a flour barrel. When I was putty close to him he opened his mouth to yawn, and, by ginger, I thought I was a goner, fur he kind of sucked in and I had to swim putty lively to keep out of the current. I seen that my hook was fast in his vitals when he opened his mouth, and they won't no use trying to save it; so I jest kind of natrally handoned it there and took my knife out of my belt and cut the line just as close as I could without wurrin' the critter."

"I didn't wait to coil the line. I jest natrally give a good shove, and started toward the top of the river without sayin' good-by, fur I don't want no fuss with a fish, particular a catfish. Catfish is stupid and mean and have bad dispositions. The catfishes in the Colorado river is particularly unfriendly to white men. They've got a grudge agin me, too, for sumthin' or other. I expect I am to blame, but then agin I reckon I ain't treated them any worse than other people. It was lucky for me that the water in the Colorado was rily that day, so that that particular catfish didn't recognize me. I knew him soon as I seen him. He's the ugliest of the hull lot, and for some reason or 'nother I could never find out why he's got a grudge against you humble servant."

Vote Sellers Guilty of Treason

In a decision Judge West, of Crawfordville, Ind., holds that the man who sells his vote is guilty of treason. He characterized the right of suffrage as the sovereign power of the country, placed in the hands of the people, and declared that "the man who sells his vote sells his country and is thereby guilty of treason, the most infamous of crimes."

Give Us the News.

Possibly there never was a paper in any locality that gave all the local happenings. It is often that some come or go whom the editor does not see. It happens that a family is missed several times. They get the impression that the paper does not care to mention them. It's a mistake. Most people take a local paper to get the local happenings. Don't be afraid to tell the editor you have friends visiting you.

RHEUMATISM

Is due to an acid poison which gains access to the blood through failure of the proper organs to carry off and keep the system clear of all morbid, effete matter. This poison enters through the general circulation is deposited in the joints, muscles and nerves, causing the most intense pain. Rheumatism may attack with such suddenness and severity as to make within a few days a healthy, active person helpless and bed-ridden, with distorted limbs and shattered nerves; or it may be slow in developing, with slight wandering pains, just severe enough to make one feel uncomfortable; the tendency in such cases is to grow worse, and finally become chronic.

Like other blood diseases, Rheumatism is often inherited, and exposure to damp or cold, want of proper food, insufficient clothing, or anything calculated to impair the health, will frequently cause it to develop in early life, but more often not until middle age or later. In whatever form, whether acute or chronic, or inherited, Rheumatism is Strictly a Blood Disease, and no liniment or other external treatment can reach the trouble. Neither do the preparations of potash and mercury, and the various mineral salts, which the doctors always prescribe, cure Rheumatism, but ruin the digestion and break down the constitution.

A remedy which builds up the general health and at the same time rids the system of the poison is the only safe and certain cure for Rheumatism. S. S. S., made of roots, herbs and barks of wonderful solvent, purifying properties, attacks the disease in the right way, and in the right place—the blood—and quickly neutralizes the acid and dissolves all poisonous deposits, stimulates and reinforces the overworked, worn-out organs, and cleans the system of all unhealthy accumulations. S. S. S. cures permanently and thoroughly, and keeps the blood in a pure, healthy state.

Dr. J. O. Miller, 121 W. 10th Street, Indianapolis, Ind., for eleven months was severely afflicted with Rheumatism he was unable to feed or dress himself. Doctors and his case was hopeless. He had tried all the usual remedies, but found that S. S. S. gave him, without the slightest relief. A few bottles of S. S. S. cured him permanently, and he has never had a Rheumatism pain since. This was five years ago. We will send free our special book on Rheumatism, which should be in the hands of every sufferer from this torturing disease. Our physicians have made blood and skin diseases a life study, and will give you any information or advice wanted, so write them fully and send to about your case. We make no charge for advice or medicine. Address, SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

S. F. Stone, of Morefield, sold a load of cotton mules to Tennessee parties at $77.50 per head.—Bour bon News.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We must suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption. F. C. Duerksen.

Life Imprisonment.

At Flemingsburg last week Wm. Thacker was convicted of the murder of John Gordon and was sentenced to life imprisonment. The killing occurred last July and was the result of a political argument. When murder has been committed we favor the death penalty.

"I feel as if I should fly to pieces." How often those words are on a woman's lips. They express to the uttermost the nerve-racked condition of the body, which makes life a daily martyrdom.

If this condition had come suddenly it would have been unbearable. But the transition was gradual. A little more strain each day on the nerves. A little more drain each day of the vitality. Any woman would be glad to be rid of such a condition. Every woman tries to be rid of it. Thousands of such women have been cured by Dr. Pierce's treatment with his "Favorite Prescription" when local doctors had entirely failed to cure. "Favorite Prescription" contains opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

Why should every lady in the land own a "New Home" Sewing Machine? Because her Sewing Machine never being out of order, she is always in good humor. For sale by ED MITCHELL, The Hardware Man.

To Cure a Cough Stop coughing, as it irritates the lungs, and gives them no chance to heal. Foley's Honey and Tar cures without causing a strain in throw up the phlegm like common cough expectorants. F. C. Duerksen.

"I had grip three months; could not sleep; pain all over and head ache very bad. Dr. Miles' Nerve, Pain Pills and Liver Pills made me well."—Mrs. E. C. Bowby, Waterloo, Ind.

At Lansing, Kansas, last week a mob of 3,000 men stormed the penitentiary, taking Fred Alexander, the negro who assaulted little Eva Roth, from his cell, hurried him to the place of attack and then turned him to the stake.

The worst after effects of liquor are from depraving functions of the liver. Clear the blood through the liver, for it will strengthen the liver to withdraw from circulation the bilious poisons. Price 60c. Thos. Kennedy.

"When I was prostrated with grip and my heart and nerves were in bad shape, Dr. Miles' Nerve and Heart Cure gave me new life and health."—Mrs. Geo. Colie, Elgin, Ill.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it; and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other. If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

ADVOCATE PUBLISHING CO.

Tuesday, January 22, 1901.

Candidates are becoming thick. We are glad to see good men entering asking preferment. We want and insist on a fair race, refuse whiskey and money and let the Democrat be nominated according to worth.

Because we believe an organization should settle its own affairs unaided by any outsiders we are accused by our Republican contemporary of narrow mindedness and to this accusation we plead guilty. Politically we are narrow, narrow minded, if you please. The Democratic platform, its principles and policies and circumstances and we are so narrow that we would not go one step further, and so long as we adhere to Democratic principles will we live at ease with conscience.

Mr. Clarence Thomas is a candidate for County Attorney of Montgomery county. His friends had been urging him to make this race for more than two years and it has been the general opinion he would have his name to go before the Democratic party. Mr. Thomas is a man of education and culture, an honorable gentleman, patriotic and true. He seated with him by the winter fireside and ask him why he is a Democrat, and at once the great doctrines are taken up, he compares the equity of the Democratic doctrines with that of other parties and arguments strong and unanswerable convinces his hearer of the justness of the Democrat's cause. Mr. Thomas is just recovering from a protracted spell of fever and wishes his friends to know that he will be to see them at their homes and at public places as soon as he is able to get around. Free from personalities Mr. Thomas will make a down-right Democratic race.

Prof. Milton Jameson Goodwin is a candidate for Superintendent of County Schools subject to the action of the Democratic party. We have not had a talk with the Professor to know what he wanted with the position, he just left his $5 and said announce me, please, but we would think a man with his qualifications and business must see where he could greatly benefit Montgomery County Schools or he would not ask the preferment.

The Professor came here from Lexington, and from his school many boys have gone out to bat in the busy world, who will be proud of the opportunity to do him service. The Professor, when others were stumbling over the money question and later the Music Hall Convention, went right ahead working for and supporting the Democratic party just because he had an abiding faith in his fundamental doctrines. The Professor is a school teacher of many years experience and asks the people to give him the position on fitness and principles alone.

Egbert Coons having served the county of Montgomery for four years as County Attorney, asks an endorsement on account of duty performed. Mr. Coons will call on the Democratic voters of the county, he will tell them what he has done, what he has done for the county by wise counsel, of his pro-visions, etc. Then he will tell them while some of the boys stray off he stuck close to the old ship, heaved hard when needed and as a Democrat true a record of which he is proud, he asks party endorsement promising if the people recognize in him a competent faithful official he will see to it their confidence is worthily bestowed.

T. N. Perry, of Spencer, asks the Democratic nomination for Magistrate in the Howard's Mill and Spencer precincts. He served his district in this capacity some years ago. He has for many years lived in this county. His life and qualification for the office is well known. We ask your consideration of his claims.

In this issue we announce W. R. O'Connell for re-election to the office of County Clerk. He is serving his first term and asking for endorsement. The voters should consider the following questions: Has any county enjoyed the services of a more capable Clerk? Has he any equals as a County Clerk or has he any superiors? Consider him as a moral man and his standing in the community and among patrons of his office. Think of his remarkable race in 1897 when no other man had opposition in the regular election. Remember he had as his opponent the most popular and influential Republican with all kinds of backing, and then the perfect routing of the enemy. Let all these things enter into the mind when considering who is the best equipped man for the Democratic nomination.

A PLEASURE.

It is a pleasure to discuss propositions when contestants stick to the subject in hand, and the more agreeable when we know the man with whom we are arguing possesses the true elements of the Kentucky gentleman, for indeed such men are in mind, above a statement or an unsupported declaration. There are two great political parties in this country, and in this assumption it is not to the disparagement of other political parties, any one of which advocates principles worthy of consideration of all men. At present one of these great parties in the Senatorial district is undertaking to settle upon a candidate to represent Democratic doctrines. We have said, that this is a Democratic contest, for it is Democrats asking preferment at the hands of the Democratic party, and if we are not mistaken it is no more a Republican's business what that democrat advocates as a Democrat in such a contest before the Democrats party than it would be a Democrats business in another state or an Englishman's indicating the policies of our government. Our interests are common when the Democrats and Republicans have named candidates and platforms and then each party is interested and it is their business to see that conscientiously approved principles prevail. Again our esteemed contemporary becomes very weak in his insinuations statements regarding announcements of Democratic candidates, and the editor's comments.

The candidates may have good reasons for not announcing in a Republican organ.

We don't know their reasons. It may be they do not think it wise to contribute political funds into a source from which it may be used against the party. It may be they are of the opinion that Democrats patronize their own papers and to announce in a Republican paper would be against the rules of economy. Then it may be these Senatorial candidates are like many Democrats and also Republicans who look for their party organ to take care of them and hence believe for this labor all party patronage is due the party organ, but this does not concern us. Courtships are nice and many times appreciated. Our contemporary would have the people believe, because he is not thus patronized, his paper would furnish the truth concerning men and measures. Then it follows by inference that if they had given him support he could not be so reliable as a journalist. We do not believe our contemporary would be so bad, or as weak as the inference makes him. The flowers pinned on the Gazette from its own green house, such as roses, pinks, sunflowers and jump-up-johnies, are really becoming but their fragrance is lost in the winds.

ARMY REORGANIZATION BILL.

The Army Reorganization Bill has been passed by the Senate, the vote being forty-three to twenty-three. It will now go to conference, being materially different from that passed by the House. Numerous amendments were voted down by substantially the same vote. The four Democrats who voted for the bill were Messrs. Lindsay, McLaurin, Morgan and Sullivan. A determined but unsuccessful effort was made to add an amendment providing against the sale of liquor in the Philippines, but the Republicans were for its sale. So it is the good people send out their Missionaries to preach the gospel and the Republican party opens the door for the sale of liquors. How the ministry, who favor the Divine commission, "Go Teach All Nations," can enter the booth where no eye can see save that of the All-seeing and then there vote for a party who favors the Army Canteen is all darkness to this fellow up here on the editorial tripod. Another nut to crack.

Henry Jones is a native of Montgomery county. The people who have lived here know him to a dot. That he is a gentleman, a business man, endowed with plenty of common sense no man would question. His position of trust have been many: Deputy Sheriff, School trustee, Magistrate, City Councilman and Sheriff. Had he not discharged the duties of the first trust according to requirements that would have ended his public career, but the people have ever been proud to honor him. Knowing his own faithfulness and wanting to be County Judge by the votes of the party he has ever loved and labored for, he asks the Democrats to consider his fitness for the position and to name him as their candidate. Mr. Jones is a moral man, strictly a business man, a church man; one whom when recognizing a duty has the courage to perform it.

W. H. Wright is a candidate for Assessor of Montgomery county, asking the Democratic party to name him as its candidate. Mr. Wright is a farmer, knows the valuation of property, is clear headed, and would make a good man at the head of the ticket as he has made as deputy under Mr. Roberts. Should he be elected Mr. Roberts would be his deputy. These men are Democrats of the old-time type, party workers, laboring as hard for others as for themselves. The people know these gentlemen, how well and how faithfully they have served and it is with the people whether they will continue to take the value of properties. This is an important position and we should be careful that we have it filled by men of judgment.

Come Home.

Mr. Edward Jones has moved into the city and occupied a position in the distilling department of Oldham Bros. Mr. Jones is an experienced clothier, polite, accommodating and reliable. His many friends will be glad to learn he has returned to the mercantile business. He asks that they call on him at the clothing department at Oldham Bros. & Co.

Time to Oil Up.

Like every other complex machine, the human body has its periods for repair. Sleep is Nature's time for rest, when the repair shops of the brain make good the damage of the waking hours. The man who cannot sleep, or who suffers from headache, nervousness, lost appetite, indigestion, heart trouble or pain, is running with a hot box. Give the tired brain and worn-out nerves a chance to rest. Stop! It is time to oil up.

"LaGrippe left me with shattered nerves and a weakened heart. I was short of breath, my heart fluttered and I was so nervous and irritable that I could not sleep. The first two doses of Dr. Miles' Nervine brought me relief. Five bottles invigorated my whole system and cured me. Although I am 38 years old I am as strong and hearty to-day as most men are at 60."

CAPT. JOSEPH KILLBOE, Portland, Ore.

How to Take Cod Liver Oil.

Nearly everyone knows that when they are thin there is no remedy in the world equal to cod liver oil to make them fleshy. Yet there is nothing against which they rebel more promptly. There were a great many ways recommended for making cod liver oil pleasant, among these we would mention placing a pinch of salt in the mouth before and after taking the dose of oil. Syrup of bitter orange peel was also recommended. But now all this is unnecessary. Science has found a way of making cod liver oil not only pleasant to take, but easy to digest. Messrs. Scott & Bowne have brought this science to perfection in their Scott's Emulsion, which is cod liver oil free from disagreeable odor, and taste, and already partly digested.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened yesterday. The docket is the lightest for years. The following compose the grand jury: R. J. Hunt, foreman; G. L. Douglas, J. L. Smith, G. B. Smith, E. J. Thomas, Joe Holt, Taylor Shouse, John Gibson, Chas. Brock, R. D. Gaiskill, J. C. Egan, Andy Cline.

Speaker Hamilton is again in his chair in the House of Representatives after a severe attack of grip.

Bridge Across Slote.

The county court has a committee consisting of two magistrates, C. G. Thompson, John R. Thomas and Henry Graves. This committee has discretionary powers. The committee will open the creek and receive estimates. At this point a bridge is very much needed and our information is since the wash out of the old Howard's Mill dam the creek at this place has been put in a bad condition. The committee should be in position to report at the meeting of the next term of court when an allowance should be made, contract let and a speedy construction ordered.

Prof. C. R. Adams' New System of Physical Education.

Prof. C. R. Adams' new system of physical education without apparatus is being brought to our city. Last night many of our best citizens attended the first lesson of a course of instruction, which is sure to result in a helpful manner to all who attend. No part of human training is more neglected and more important than the science of "how to live well." We do not mean food, for "blessed does not live by bread alone." Proper exercise, and when and how to take it, is a most important factor. This system of scientific exercise is a friend to the fat and the lean, reducing the corpulence of the one and building up the starved muscles of the other. It is a system of exercise and care of the body that will greatly improve the health and add not only years to the life, but life to the years of those who practice the work. The correct principles of health are constantly coming to the front and being acknowledged by the best informed people and physicians generally. This is a splendid opportunity for our citizens to secure a knowledge of how to best care for the body. Classes for ladies and children are now being organized. Gentlemen's classes in the A. O. U. W. Hall over New York Store daily at 4:30 and 8:00 p. m. For further information call at studio, or on Prof. Adams or wife at residence of Mrs. A. Baum.

A Doll Grows Into a Baby.

On Christmas eve a doll baby was left at the door of D. C. Tipton near Peyton's Lick church. The fact (exaggerated into a real baby) found extensive circulation throughout the country. The Owensville Outlook stated that with the child there was $1000 to be used in caring for it, and more would be furnished if necessary.

Mr. Tipton has received a letter from a lady in Indiana, proposing to take the child either with or without the money as she knew that the child was of good parentage and she would like to have the child as she is children.

Mr. Tipton has received a letter in an envelope post marked New York, name and address of writer being given. The writer says in substance that he is responsible for the child, that he had provided the $1000, that he had left the State and that having failed to realize as much money as he expected from a deal with a lawyer he asks Mr. Tipton to favor him with the loan of $500 of the 1000, and that at a specified time he would return the $500 also an additional $500 and that about December 25 of each year he would send to Mr. Tipton $500 for support of the child.

Mr. Tipton has the doll baby but not the $1000, and is anxiously waiting to see how many more letters he will receive.

It is a popular baby in the Tipton family.

After an illness of five weeks from the grip, Mrs. Harriet Jackson is again about and looking fine. She began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine after the fourth week. Her home is in Bowling Green, Mo.

IN THE QUEEN'S NAVY.

How its Rulers Administer Justice in Their Floating Realm.

The captain of a British man-of-war is something of a czar aboard his own ship. He does not possess power of life and death over his subordinates, but he can make or mar a man just as he pleases. Warrant officers and all ranks above can be punished only by court-martial. But in all the ranks below warrant officer, says the London Mail, the captain can promote or degrade men as he thinks fit. Two tribunals are held daily in a battleship. At noon the command or deals with the lighter offenses, while the more serious ones are judged by the captain at evening.

At the dreaded evening function the captain presides sternly, sitting at a table on the quarter deck, with officers around him. The prisoners stand in a row facing their judge. "What is the man charged with?" asks the captain, as culprit No. 1 steps forward.

The master-at-arms states the charge, which is that Ordinary Seaman Jones walked when he should have run, and would not mend his pace when ordered to.

"Call the witnesses," commands the "skipper," and the witnesses step forward and give their evidence. "Well, you have heard what the witnesses said; 'what have you to say?'" asks the captain.

Jones explains that he "didn't hear," or "was going to double," or something of the kind. The captain considers a moment while he sizes up appearances as well as testimony. "Well," is his conclusion, "I have to double," so does everybody else in the ship, and you'll have to do the same. I'm determined (this with very significant emphasis) to have everybody in my crew thoroughly smart at his work. Seven days 10 A."

There are a number of what are termed "scale punishments" laid down by the admiralty. Of these 10 A is the most irritating. The man undergoing it has to take his meals under a sentry's supervision, work while the other men are resting, do all the dirty work of the ship and stand for a couple of hours at a stretch on the quarter deck with his face to the bulwarks. "Keeping the flies off the paint," Jack calls it.

The captain may sentence a man to 14 days of this punishment or to 30 days' imprisonment in cells. Beyond that term he cannot go. But there are an infinite number of smaller punishments which he may inflict for a variety of offenses that to a landsman might seem mere trifles. Such are being late in turning out in the morning, wearing socks not of the regulation pattern, and so on. Usually a man's previous character is considered, and there is a kind of unwritten first offenders' law, which carries great weight with most commanding officers. It is well for Jack that it is so, for by depriving a man of badges or disarming him a captain can not only seriously decrease the offender's pay while serving, but also the pension which he looks forward to as a provision against old age.

As with the mutiny with the officers, to stand well with the captain means everything to them, for the captain has to make a confidential report concerning every one of them, and upon what he says in this document the officers' prospects largely depend.

Doubtless a good many persons will be surprised to learn that corporal punishment is still administered in the British navy. The "cat" has been abolished, but canings and birchings are very frequent. Only boys—young seamen up to 18 years of age—are subjected to this form of correction.

Many people whose opinions of service discipline are obtained from occasionally hearing what takes place on a barrack square think that naval officers are in the habit of bullying. This is quite unnecessary, as the average naval officer can put more "bite" into a few quiet words than the ordinary man could get into half a day's hard swearing.

West Indian Cyclones.

About 88 per cent. of the West Indian cyclones occur in August, September and October. Fortunately, most of them are not of a very destructive character. The records in the Island of St. Thomas, for example, show that in the century and a half preceding 1897 that island suffered from devastating cyclones only seven times through the northern and eastern islands, such as St. Thomas, Porto Rico, Cuba and the Bahamas, that are most frequently in the pathway of the severest cyclones.
